Personalized Items:

When ordering personalized items either by phone, FAX or mail, please fill out form completely for each item. Please clearly indicate exactly how personalization should appear including capital letters and punctuation. We will always provide you with excellent customer service and rarely make errors on personalized items. We happily accept phone orders for our customer's convenience, but cannot accept liability for errors in spacing, capitalization, thread color, type style or spelling when an order has not been placed in writing or over the internet. At your request we will happily call or fax you back and confirm your personalized order. Since personalized items are not returnable, we want to insure that we fill your order exactly as you've requested. If no type selection is offered, type will be as shown. For embroidered items, please indicate embroidery thread color.
